

ZenTheStick nominated for Spellbound award

Contributed by Matthew Loel T. Hepworth
Sunday, 06 January 2008

ZenTheStick is proud to announce that David Vesel at the Spellbound Theremin radio show has again nominated them for a Spellbound Award in the Rock category. "Behind Every Tree in The Haunted Forest" was nominated along with other great music from Guiye Frayo, Jen Hammaker, The Inactivists, and The Night Terrors. ZenTheStick won the award in 2005 for "Saturday Matinee" and was nominated in 2006 for "2325262729".

"We're thrilled to be nominated again" says ZenTheStick Thereminist, Matthew Loel T. Hepworth. "Spellbound is a remarkable radio show featuring the best Thereminists in the world. It's very exciting to hear our music played there along with masters like Lydia Kavina, Barbara Bucholz, The Lothars, and others of their ilk."

More information can be found at: <http://spellbound.purplenote.com/awards.html>

Spellbound can be heard every Sunday night from 10 PM to 12 AM (USA Eastern Time / 0300 to 0500 UTC). Tune in or download podcasts at <http://spellbound.purplenote.com>